Important note: Graduands are kindly asked to adhere to the distribution schedule. This will allow the University to provide a service that is as efficient and seamless as can possibly be offered. Please note that as always we will serve persons who, for various reasons, may miss their appointed distribution date and/or time, however, priority will be given to those scheduled for service on the given date and/or time. Based on the dynamic on-the-ground situation, this schedule is subject to change with notice.
